

The final annual meeting of the LMI LUSES takes place at Kasetsart University in Bangkok on June 8th-9th.

LMI LUSES is cooperation between scientific researchers from nine institutions which is from France, Thailand, Laos and Vietnam around soil conservation issues since 2012.

The meeting is provided in two days: one is dedicated for the final report of LMI LUSES for the phase 1 in 2012-2016 and another day is dedicated to the guidelines of LMI LUES for the phase 2 in 2016-2020.

8th June, 2016

In the first day, there are the report presentations of four sub-projects of LMI LUSES:

- TREE PLATATION: The Effect of Tree Plantations on The Soil
- ECOFILTER: Land Use and Stream Ground Water
- OMM: Organic Matter Management
- SEALNET: South East Asia Laboratory Network

9th June, 2016

- Presentation on SURUMER: Towards an integrated framework for sustainable rubber cultivation
- LMI LUSES member provided in two group that are given the presentation about LMI LUSES phase 2 (2016-2020)
 - Land uses changes and carbon cycles
 - Land uses changes and water cycles

Contact

Alain Brauman, IRD

alain.brauman@ird.fr

Nopmanee Suvannang, LDD

nopmanee_su@hotmail.com